Friends Aid Family After Son's Death

By GIVEN BARKAN

This has been a gay time of the year for the household of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. England, 438 W. 214th St. First, they invited a houseful of friends to help them celebrate seven years of happy married life, with lots of eat and much merriment.

Then last week Mrs. England again opened her home to fete Irma Vasquez, one of our recent brides, with a kitchen shower. Guests enjoyed playing games, winning prizes, watching Mrs. Vasquez open her presents, and were treated to delicious refreshments. Among those attending were Mrs. Vasquez's sisters Misses Janice, Norma, and Mary Jo Thompson. Other guests were Misses Dorothy McGuire, Sammy Taylor, Betty Play, Joyce Schmid, and Virginia Maroon, and Mrs. Grace Ireland, Shirley Garbrabrant, Shirley Galagher, Phyllis Conway, Nina Burt, Grace Play, Evelyn Man-Florence Barnes, Corinne Jett, Peg Schmid, Sally Vasquez, and Heloisa Hernandez, and Heloisa Day.

Three "Happy Birthdays" this month—First in line is Lloya Rowe who was seven last week. He celebrated his day with a cake at home with his parents and a special trip to see some thing he especially will enjoy. Patty Takenuchi was also seven years old, and will have her family help her celebrate at home. Dana Gilbert is six years old and in the first grade "at last!" Or at least, so he says.

Death is always heartbreaking. More so when a healthy child is suddenly taken, but Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bird, 22225 Monsta Ave., will long remember the wonderful kindness of friends and neighbors during this trying time. We've all been reading about little 7-year-old Lincoln Frank Bird who died suddenly after doctors thought he had been revived with heart massage. The loving services that laid him to rest took place last Saturday from the Lynwood Mortuary with the Rev. Benjamin H. Smith, officiating. Interment was at the Sunnyside Mausoleum.

We are very proud of two of our neighbors Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Carey, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Sebort. These fine people have donated a window to the "Mother's Chapel," part of the expansion plan of the Torrance Nativity Catholic Church.

The newly formed Girl Scout unit, under sponsorship of the Carson St. PTA, enjoyed a roller skating party on March 9 at the Torrance Roller-drome. Chaperoning the girls were leaders, Mrs. Delpha McCleskey, Mrs. Mina Knight, Mrs. Mildred Johnston, and Mrs. Marjorie Reschka. The girls are planning a party at Easter-time, and are beginning to really have a fine organization.

Good luck wishes this week to Mr. and Mrs. Wade Wright, who have purchased the neighborhood store on W. 214th St.

from Mr. and Mrs. C. Bragg. We all enjoyed Bragg's and I feel sure will also find the Wrights fine to do business with.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Clara Wiltse

Mrs. Clara Adena Wiltse, 76, mother of Mrs. Lyla McLeod of 1468 W. 219th St., died March 7 in Winter Park, Fla., and funeral services were held Saturday at Stone and Myers Mortuary here.

Interment followed at Rose-volt Cemetery. A native of Ontario, Canada, Mrs. Wiltse is survived by another daughter, Myrel Miller, of Canada.
